MOUNTAIN VIEW ASSISTED LIVING

The following rules were adopted by Petersburg Borough, Mt View Assisted Living Home on December 1, 2003 and revised on October 27, 2004, May 10, 2018, and April 8, 2020.

1. TV, radio and other electronic equipment which may disturb other residents may be operated during all hours, provided volume is turned low, to a reasonable level which does not impinge on others' comfort and serenity.
2. Visitors are welcomed during all hours. All visitors must sign the guest book at the entryway, both when they come in and when they leave. All visitors must check in with the care givers before visiting with the residents. All visitors need to abide by the rules of the house. Please note that our entry doors are locked at 11:00 pm and to enter, you must push the provided call button and wait for staff to unlock the door.
3. Residents may come and go at their leisure as long as POA has not told staff otherwise. They will need to sign in and out in the sign-up book and/or notify the administrator or staff that they are doing so. It is most helpful if staff is advised of the resident's destination, company and a phone number where he/she can be reached in case of an emergency.
4. Residents are encouraged to use their personal property as they see fit, provided this in no way endangers, discomforts or impinges on the rights of other residents nor the serenity of the home.
5. Mountain View Assisted Living Home is a smoke-free home (smoking only in the designated area, outside the back of the building, 25 feet from the entrance). Residents may consume a reasonable and moderate amount of alcoholic beverages, provided it in no way conflicts with doctors' orders, instructions or medications.
6. Intentional and/or willful physical, verbal or other abuse of other residents, staff, visitors and pets will not be tolerated and may be grounds for termination of a residential services contract. Actions which are due to the resident's medical/mental condition will not be considered intentional/willful, but will be discouraged as much as possible, and will be looked into for possible repetitive patterns which may lead to termination of the residential services contract.
7. Residents may not engage in any lewd and lascivious conduct which may lead to the embarrassment or discomfort of other residents or staff, or to the disruption of the serenity of the family environment of the Home. Displays of such conduct will be grounds for termination of the residential services contract.
8. Personal weapons such as knives, switchblades, any guns with ammunition, and sabers will not be allowed in the resident's room or personal possession.
9. Resident parking is in front of the Assisted Living building. No inoperable vehicles will be stored on the premises for longer than 30 days. No more than 1 vehicle per resident.
10. Local and/or statewide orders related to "shelter in place" or stay put orders, due to the COVID-19 virus must be obeyed as well as all House Rules. Upon the first violation of the House Rules or any local or state wide stay put rule, the administrator or designee may issue a written warning including a statement that continued violation of the stay put rule or other House Rules, will be considered grounds for a 24-hour notice of termination of services. If a second violation of the stay put rule or House Rules occurs, a final written warning notice to the resident and representative including a statement that a third violation will result in termination of services as well as notification to Central Intake. If a third violation of the stay put rule occurs, the home may issue a written termination of services notice and notify Central Intake. Prior to issuing the notice, the staff or administrator will offer a case conference with the resident and/or the resident's representative that includes any other service coordinator or other care providers who would be able to discuss arrangements required to relocate the resident.

MOUNTAIN VIEW ASSISTED LIVING

I have read, or had read to me, in a language that I can understand, the foregoing House Rules, and I was given a copy of the Rules before I entered into a residential services contract with Mountain View Assisted Living.
